A ROYAL CENTRAL APARTMENT

- WHERE CLASSIC AND CONTEMPORARY MEET
THROUGH BESPOKE PIECES

Interior Designer: Kris Turnbull Studios

Location: Dublin, Ireland

Style: Classic, Contemporary, Royal

Main Brands: Boca do Lobo

Client(s): Couple who owns different properties

Located in the dynamic city of Dublin, this fashionable one-bedroom apartment was completely rebuilt from scratch by Kris Turnbull Studios to meet the expectations of the couple who owns it.

With high ceilings and stunning views of the Grand Canal, the contemporary interior completely matches the Nature that surrounds it. The interior designers chose bespoke and refined furniture that creates a harmonious balance between traditional and modern. This one-of-a-kind aesthetic finds in layering one of the trends that inspired this composition, as the mix of fabrics and brass artwork enriches the home, making it a hidden gem in the Irish capital.

Entering this magnificent residence, a black and white marble corridor leads us to the central room of this interior, the living room. Giving warmth and comfort, a classic fireplace contrasts with the contemporary lines of the curvy sofa, that perfectly match Boca do Lobo's Wave Center Table. This is an original and stylish coffee table for modern living rooms, which is developed by Portuguese jewelry artisans with hand-hammered brass and a black mirror top. The living room look is completed by more extravagant pieces that add a little fun to the design, such as the suspension lamp and the side table.

Moving to more private areas, such as the master bedroom and the bathroom, a royal and eclectic style is more present and it is visible in the curtains, for example, and in the bathroom aesthetic. The Master Bedroom crosses a classic and "princess" look with a modern design with simpler lines and sober colors. The bathroom is fully covered in marble and gold, elevating the space and taking it to a more luxurious level.
